INDEPENDENCE MESSAGE

THE COALITION OF JAMAICAN ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS OF FLORIDA

Education Matters!

HAPPY SIXTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE JAMAICA, and to all Jamaicans in the Diaspora. We celebrate with you another year of an independent Jamaica.

As we reflect on Jamaica's independence and some of its possible meanings; self-rule, self-determination, self-reliance and sufficiency, and directing one's own affairs without interference, we are reminded of not only how far Jamaica has come since 1962 in terms of self-reliance, but also, how much the alumni associations in South Florida have done to help schools and colleges achieve some form of autonomy and independence.

Through the support of projects to improve schools' infrastructure, and by helping to fund students' basic needs, our schools and colleges in Jamaica are relying less on government's funding and are learning to become more independent. Self-reliance and autonomy in our schools have also helped to increase students,' principals,' and teachers' confidence in their ability to achieve and their sense of responsibility. With our alumni groups, there is also more determination to solve problems in our community and to take hold of the future.

As a community, we have always worked together, supported each other, and learned from each other. These are the traits that continue to bring us closer and make our community stronger in South Florida and back home in Jamaica. This we are certain will continue as we work together to make the bond stronger.

Jamaica is still a young independent nation with very talented people and wonderful natural resources. When we combine these very valuable assets with our strong desire to help each other, there is so much more that our alumni community and Jamaica will achieve in the future. We look forward to a brighter tomorrow for Jamaicans here in the Diaspora and for our homeland.

Let us celebrate our independence as a people, as organizations committed to help others achieve, and as a nation committed to the development of our most important natural resource, the people of Jamaica.

INDEPENDENCE MESSAGE

GLOBAL JAMAICA DIASPORA COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE SOUTHERN UNITED STATES

Greater inclusivity of Jamaicans living across the globe

As your Global Jamaica Diaspora Council Representative for the Southern United States, I am proud to join with you in celebrating Jamaica's 61st Independence celebration. This is a day to commemorate our nation's hard-won freedom and to reflect on the many achievements we have made since 1962.

Jamaica is a land of rich culture and history. We are a people of resilience and creativity. We have made significant contributions to the world in the areas of music, sports, and culture.

On this day, let us come together to celebrate our Jamaican heritage and to reaffirm our commitment to building a better future for our nation. Let us also remember those who have made sacrifices to ensure our freedom.

I wish you all a happy and prosperous Independence Day!

Here are some of the things that make Jamaica a great country:

- The people: Jamaicans are known for their warm hospitality and their love of life.
- The culture: Jamaica has a rich and vibrant culture, which is reflected in its music, food, and art.
- The natural beauty: Jamaica is home to some of the most beautiful beaches in the world, as well as lush rainforests and stunning mountains.
- The opportunities: Jamaica is a country with a lot to offer, both in terms of business and personal opportunities.

I am proud to be a Jamaican, and I am proud to be a part of the Jamaican diaspora in the Southern United States. Let us continue to work together to build a better future for our nation.

Happy Independence Day, Jamaica!

INDEPENDENCE MESSAGE

CONSULATE GENERAL OF JAMAICA, MIAMI

R. Oliver Mair, Consul General

My fellow Jamaicans, as we come together as a nation to celebrate our 61st Anniversary of Independence “Jamaica 61 – Proud & Strong” let us reflect on our many achievements and give thanks to Almighty God for another year of blessings.

On behalf of the Consulate General of Jamaica, Miami, I commend all Jamaicans as you continue to show that collective spirit of how Jamaicans unite for the common good, a spirit of generosity and patriotism. In life, adversities and trials will come, but as a people we’re resilient, strong and we’ve always overcome. As we reflect on 61 years of Independence, let us not forget the steps we have made forward, creating opportunities for the betterment of Jamaicans at home and abroad, even under the most challenging circumstances.

Proud and Strong does not always mean there is no fear, uncertainty nor doubt. But in spite of our apprehension, as a people, we step out in faith knowing that the God of our nation will guide us as He has always done and has been our light throughout the countless hours.

Celebrating our pride and strength, we must remember those who have inspired us through the pages of history. Let us use the strength of our forefathers – including Bob Marley and Marcus Garvey and also Miss Lou, to step into our greatness. This has also been fueled by the athletic prowess and continued success of those on the global stage - Usain Bolt and Shelly Ann Frazer - to help us continue the journey both at home and in the Diaspora. This firm resolve has given us the opportunity to recognize and appreciate the resilience and tenacity of our Jamaican people.

Our Jamaicans continue to rise to the top in leadership positions achieving greatness in every discipline. As a country we continue to stand on high marks, maintaining a positive outlook against all odds. Let me commend our Diaspora and friends for the critical role they continue to play in the growth and development of our beloved homeland, maintaining the focus on economic development, especially benefiting health and education, and our social services. You continue to give of your time, talents, and resources to support the countless Jamaicans who have been beneficiaries of your philanthropic efforts.

As a people, we stand proud and can look forward with enthusiasm and excitement as we unite to carry on, building a better Jamaica, land we love. Reflecting on our past, we must assess the present, and look to the future with humility, a gentle and kind heart, and be mindful that God is our constant guide, and with Him all things are possible.

On behalf of my family and the staff at the Consulate General, let me wish you my Diaspora family, as you celebrate, a peaceful and joyful 61 years of Independence, continued health, strength and purpose.

“Jamaica 61 – Proud & Strong!”

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION HIGH TOPS 2023 ACADEMIC RANKINGS

The media in Jamaica reported that Immaculate Conception (98%) ranked highest in the 2023 Academic Ranking for High Schools followed by Champion, St. Andrew High, Wolmer's Girls, Montego Bay High, and Ardenne rounding off the top 6 schools. We commend all schools that were in this report because over 50 per cent of their students passed at least five subjects including both Math and English in the CSEC examination.

It was also reported that due to COVID, only twenty-seven schools met the criteria for this study (having over 50 per cent of their students passing five subjects with both Math and English) and thus were included in the study. We are hoping that the next ranking will include at least 50% or 85 of the total of 170 secondary, technical, and agricultural high schools in Jamaica.

Among the factors that are responsible for high ranking percentages are strong teaching and learning systems, and excellent adoption and use of technology across the board. Our Jamaican alumni community in Florida has 60 Jamaican Alumni Associations, over thirty more than the number included in the study. Let us as an alumni community in Florida pledge to give more support to our schools in Jamaica and target our support to the factors outlined above. This will help to ensure that the schools our Florida Alumni groups are supporting are included in the list when the rankings are completed in the future.

Congrats to our alumni groups for creating such wonderful partnerships with their alma mater, because by so doing you are helping to ensure that our students are successful in CSEC and CAPE exams. Click on this LINK to read the full 2023 report, and the schools and ranks are on the next page.

JAMAICA EX-POLICE ASSOCIATION HAS NEW LEADERS

The new president of the Jamaica Ex-Police Association of South Florida, Inc., is Ivan Wallace. He served at the Immigration Branch of the Jamaica Constabulary Force, and Miami-Dade County Corrections. The vice president is Alphonso Dinn and the board chairman is Lawrence Palmer. Malachi Smith is still the association's public relations (PR) person. Best wishes to the new board of JEPA.

All the relevant schools were contacted and solid attempts were made to verify the data of each school. Schools that have unfortunately NOT been include were as a result of the school achieving less than 50% of their students meeting the criteria or we were unable to verify the accuracy of their data. EDUCATE JAMAICA DOES NOT USE SITTINGS IN ITS CALCULATIONS. SITTINGS DISINCENTIVIZE SCHOOLS FROM ENTERING STUDENTS FOR EXAMS. USING SITTINGS AS THE BASIS FOR CALCULATIONS REDUCES THE FOCUS ON IMPROVING STUDENT PERFORMANCE. Each school was measured using the percentage of their total grade 11 cohort that achieved 5 or more subjects (inclusive of BOTH Mathematics and English at CSEC). It must be noted that all subjects sat prior to grade 11 (7,8,9 and 10) were taken into account.
